Steven Matovski has joined Redwood Realty Advisors as a director, the firm announced.

The Hasbrouck Heights-based brokerage and advisory firm said Matovski will spearhead its expansion in Hudson County. He has worked in the industry since 2008, most recently serving as a senior associate at Marcus & Millichap.

“We are planning to expand aggressively in that market, and we believe Steven is an excellent choice to lead that effort,” Thomas McConnell, managing partner at Redwood Realty Advisors, said in a prepared statement. “Steven’s multifamily expertise in the industry, and in Hudson County specifically, make him a great addition to our team.”

Matovski has advised private and institutional investor clients, developers and lenders.

“I am excited to join Redwood Realty Advisors and help them to grow the company,” Matovski said. “They take a true team approach to every assignment, and their exclusive focus on multifamily allows us to put a laser sharp focus on excelling in this sector.”
