REDWOOD
REALTY ADVISORS

We spend an incredible amount of time supporting our collaborative team culture. The culture in our office is everything to us. We always have a company outing on the calendar and often eat lunch together on Fridays. We run a flat organization structure without the layers of corporate nonsense. We truly care about each and every one under our roof as if they were family .

We have the free lunches and cool company outings; however, the people are most attracted to the support we provide. We exhaust ourselves for our people. The folks in our firm mean everything to us. Plus we have a triathlon team!

BENEFITS: Retirement plan, profit sharing, performance based reviews on a regular basis, employee training, maternity leave, paternity leave, tuition reimbursement. Special perks such as, free parking, subsidized transportation.
